

Wisconsin's Literacy (un)Conference 2014

Balanced Literacy Assessment for Early Learning Monday, May 5, 2014

Wisconsin's Literacy (un)Conference is an online professional learning opportunity to develop instructional leadership in the area of K – 3 literacy.

All sessions will be posted on Monday, May 5, 2014, for flexible viewing. All materials will be archived for future use.

This event is free of charge.
No pre-registration is required.

Who?

K – 3 literacy leaders including:
Directors of Instruction
Directors of Special Education
Literacy Coaches
Principals
Reading Specialists
School Psychologists

When?

All sessions and materials posted on Monday, May 5, 2014
Twitter chat Monday, May 19 at 7:00 PM (#wisuncon)

What?

Topics include:
Wisconsin's Balanced Assessment System
WISExplore and WISEDash
DPI-created resources to support balanced assessment
Data Walls
Curriculum-Based Measurements (CBMs)
Smarter Balanced Assessment
Uses and Misuses of PALS Data
CCSS-based Formative Assessment Strategies
Analyzing Student Writing
Running Records
DIBELS Next

